REPUBLICANS SEEK NEW CONVENTION BASIS

Washington, Sept. 30.—Comprehensive plans to reduce Southern representation in Republican National conventions will be submitted to the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee by an advisory committee of five members of the House tomorrow. The committee will offer three propositions. Each will be based upon the idea that delegates to the National conventions shall represent votes actually cast in elections and not be chosen merely on the basis of population as at present.

An attempt will be made to perfect one of these plans in the hope that it may be forwarded to the Republican National Committee with the idea of an extraordinary National convention next winter to act upon it.

The plan, which has many friends in the advisory committee, provides for one delegate from each Congressional district where the Republican vote is 40 per cent or less of the total; two delegates where it is from 40 to 60 per cent, and three delegates where it is over 60 per cent. There would be four delegates at large from each state. Under the old method of choosing delegates the South had 228 men seated in the last National convention. Under the plan outlined, it would have 149.

Two other plans give one delegate for each 10,000 votes, with four at large, from each state. Under one the Southern representation would be 78 and under the other 149.

Change in Boundary Commission

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—The resignation of Frank S. Streeter, of Concord, N. H., as one of the members of the International Joint Commission for the adjustment of boundary disputes between the United States and Canada became effective today. Mr. Streeter's place on the commission was taken by Mr. Obadiah Gardner, former United States Senator from Maine. His salary of $10,000 a year is considered with the position.

HERRING OF ELK CITY FOR GOVERNOR

F. E. Herring of Elk City, who was a candidate for governor for a part of the campaign of 1910, has again declared himself a candidate and will make the race on a platform pledging that the affairs of the state will be run on a strictly business basis. He says:

"I take the position that state government is nothing more or less than a great corporation in which every taxpayer is a stockholder.

"Having had many years experience in various lines of business, I have the utmost confidence in myself, and believe that I can give them a business administration, not forgetting our great democratic organization, which will be my creator if successful.

"I believe that I will be able to systematize, and economize the affairs of this state to such an extent that it will reduce very materially the burden of taxation."

Workers to Rest One Day a Week

New York, Oct. 1.—The new state law passed by the legislature at its last regular session and which requires all employers to give to their employees one day of rest a week, went into effect today. Many big concerns and corporations, which had heretofore kept many of their employees at work seven days in the week, anticipated the going into effect of the law and made such changes as were necessary to give every one of their workmen and other employees one free day a week without interfering with the continuance of the work on Sundays. The street railway lines, the hotels and restaurants, cigar dealers, etc., were in most cases compelled to engage additional help to make it possible to obey the law without interfering with Sunday work.

HOUSE ADOPTS TARIFF BILL

Washington, Sept. 30.—The report of the conference committee on the democratic tariff bill passed in the House of Representatives today by a vote of 254 to 103, a majority of 151 votes. On May 8 the House passed the Underwood bill by a vote of 281 to 139, a majority of 142. This shows that the conference report was adopted today by nine more majority than was the bill itself last May.

This was due mainly to unpaired absentees. Four Progressives, Cary of Wisconsin, Kelly of Pennsylvania, Kent of California and McDonald of Michigan and three Republicans, Mahan of Minnesota, Rupley of Pennsylvania and Stafford of Wisconsin, voted for the conference report. On the other hand, four Democrats, Donohoe of Pennsylvania, Broussard, Morgan and Labaro of Louisiana, voted against the adoption of the conference report.

By the slender majority of ten votes the Administration won its fight to substitute the Smith-Lever cotton future tax provision for the Clarke amendments, which the senate had added to the Underwood bill.

Notwithstanding that Leader Underwood and Representative Lever emphasized the fact that President Wilson wanted the Smith-Lever proposal substituted for the Clarke amendment nearly enough Democratic Congressmen voted against the proposal to defeat it. The vote stood 171 for the Smith-Lever substitute and 161 against

JOHNSTON THINKS ROLLS WILL NOT BE OPENED

Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 30.—"The Choctaw-Chickasaw rolls will not be reopened if the Indians' protests count for anything," said Gov. Douglass H. Johnston of the Chickasaw Nation.

"We hoped to get through congress a bill appropriating sufficient funds for a $100 per capita payment to members of the two tribes, which would have taken about $3,000,000 of our $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 now on hand. Mississippi Congressmen made a point of order and the bill went out in that way. But we will make a try again next session.

"Behind the opposition to a payment was the hope of getting a small number of Mississippi Choctaws on the rolls. These Indians either declined to come West with the main tribe or came and returned soon afterward. There are comparatively few of them, but in the shadow of the opposition lies the hope of between 20,000 and 20,000 white people who are willing to claim kinship with the Indians for the sake of sharing in the general estate. We think the government has already been unduly liberal in giving Indian land to people possessing but a small quantum of racial blood, since in the Six Republicans voted for the administration plan, which was just enough to save the Smith-Lever substitute from defeat. More than fifty Democrats voted against the substitute.

The Southern Congressmen very largely voted "No," intending to vote for the Clarke amendment. The Texas delegation was split, seven voting with the administration and eight voting against the Smith-Lever substitute.

"The full-blood Indians are rapidly dropping off, and I am not sure we know to what it is due. They seem to succumb more readily to pneumonia than any other disease, although tuberculosis takes many away. The younger generation appears more hardy. I can not believe that the full-blood death rate is due to present mode of living, although that would be a factor if the old fellows were in want. In the early days they had all the comforts one could wish for—comfortable houses, ample clothing and the most wholesome food. It is true that they did not live out of a can, like many of us do today, I remember five years ago there were between thirty and forty full-bloods living near me on the north side of Blue River, and today there are not more than fifteen."

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES ON MORTGAGE LAW

Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 30.—In an opinion to J. M. Clark, County Attorney of Atoka County, the Attorney General's department held that the Wright law, governing the taxing of mortgages and which goes into effect Oct. 1, does not repeal the existing statute applicable to the same mortgages. Sec. 5, Chapter 221 (1911) gives the option to owners of all mortgages recorded prior to Jan. 1, 1912, the right to elect to have the mortgage taxed at each mortgage sale. The new law, however, does not repeal the existing statute.

has been lost or destroyed the County Treasurer must issue a receipt for the tax. The mortgage or the receipt must be presented to the Register of Deeds and filed for record, the Register being required to indorse the amount of tax so paid on upon the margin of the record.

For this the law allows collection of an additional fee of 25c which must be accounted for as other fees. The ruling applies only to mortgages filed prior to July 1, 1913. Those filed on or after that date pay the graduated tax without the additional fee referred to.

Although the law is ambiguous in referring to the amount of the filing fee for mortgages running between three and five years, and would indicate no charge is to be made, the department advises the county officers to make the charge of 30c per $100 of value, as it was the legislature's intent to have done.

OUR SENTIMENTS EXACTLY.

The Mirror has very little patience with the newspaper that is continually harping about what the merchants of the town owe it as a public institution. It is all right for the merchants to show their appreciation of their paper upon this basis, in a personal way to the management, but when it comes to soliciting their business from this standpoint we beg to differ. When we solicit a merchant's business it is with the distinct understanding that we have something to offer him of value for his money. We do not want his business because he loves us or thinks we are getting out a good paper. We want his business from a strictly business standpoint. We do not want him to get the idea in his head that whatever business he extends to the paper is so much in the way of a public donation. This theory has been overworked already. When he wants an advertisement we want him to approach us as a business man who believes he will get his money's worth when he invests in an ad, and unless he does approach us in this way he will soon learn that we are not jumping up and down for his business. Experience has taught us the better business basis that we can conduct our newspaper upon the more satisfactory it is to us and all concerned. We appreciate the personal regard of our friends, but whenever our business reaches the stage that it is to be a burden upon the public then we believe it is time for a move. Our self respect is one of our main assets and we do not feel we can maintain it and labor with the belief that our business is on the charity list.

We wish that every newspaper in Texas would launch its business upon business principles and it would only be a few years until the newspaper would assume its rightful position as a legitimate business institution. Quit your whining and go to studying your business. Insist on your merchants changing their ads every week and also ask that they look upon your paper as something of value through which they can get results if they have intellect enough to write an ad with the pull to it.—McGregor (Tex.) Mirror.

A life and death struggle between Congressman Joe Thompson and Claude Weaver is now in its first stages. The trouble is that both want to go back to congress and there is but place to fill. Puzzle: who is to be relegated to the woods again?

Hon. John P. Crawford, the progressive young Ada attorney and one of his party's shrewdest leaders in the last two legislatures is being groomed by his friends as a prospective candidate for congress in this district. Mr. Crawford is well-fixed financially and a very erudite and capable campaigner, and should he enter the lists, as now seems likely, he will come to be reckoned with by the men who hope to win the Democratic nomination in this new district.—Shawnee News-Herald.

The rock on which many a newspaper has been wrecked is jealousy. No matter how fair it tries to be, it can never steer entirely away from this dangerous rock. If anything complimentary is said about something a citizen has done, his neighbor will stand on his hind legs and howl because the credit ought to have come to him, and the other fellow did not deserve a word of it. This is not confined to any one class for every element with which we have come in contact has shown this same spirit in numerous occasions. As a general thing the editor is wasting his breath if he tries to explain for the aggrieved one never gets out of his head the notion that it was pure cussedness.

One desirable feature of the income tax is the fact that the millionaires who live abroad and draw their income from American property will now have to cough up. There is Willie Wallis Astor, who declared was not a fit place for a "gentleman" to live, and who betook himself to old "Hengland" where as naturalized as a British subject and has been trying to break into high society ever since. The main part of his wealth is in New York real estate, and it will be a bitter pill for him to swallow when it comes to paying an adequate price for the protection he gets from the government he despises and holds in contempt, and leave a few hundred thousand dollars on this side of the water every year to be placed in the national treasury. There are a good many others like him, as well as a whole crew of foreign capitalists who have large holdings in the United States on which they have paid but little tax.

HOUSTON PREACHES GOOD ROADS GOSPEL

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 1.—Secretary Houston of the United States Department of Agriculture in an address before the American Road Congress here Monday expressed his approval of the efforts of the organization and explained the interest of the Federal Government with reference to road building. He urged good roads for the farmer in preference to great transcontinental highways for automobiles, and at the same time he said he did not underestimate the valuable service rendered by automobilists in the propaganda for road building.

"The suggestion of great National transcontinental roads appeals to my imagination as does the suggestion of interstate roads connecting capitals or cities of commercial importance to my logical faculty and to the sense of pleasure that I experience in riding about the country in my friends automobiles. But that the essential thing to be done is the providing of good roads which shall get products from the community farms to the nearest station and make rural life more profitable, comfortable, pleasurable, I entertain no sort of doubt, and it is obvious that the representatives of the people in congress are like minded. For in making their recent appropriation of $500,000 for good roads they stipulated that it should be used in improving the condition of post roads, with a view to the economy and efficiency of postal delivery and for the transportation of farm products to the market.

"Such roads are equally essential to the establishment and operation of decent elementary and secondary schools for the benefit of the country boys and girls. I do not eliminate other things from consideration and I don't underestimate the rights and pleasures of the automobilists and the service they have rendered in the propaganda for road building.

"That the suggestion of Federal aid to road building raises grave questions and involves possible dangers no thoughtful citizen doubts. There are proposals before the public mind which would bankrupt the Federal Treasury and suggest possible abuses before which those of the worst pork barrel bills of the past would pale into insignificance. No proposal which does not carry with it the assurance of safeguarding the Treasury in this direction seems to me to stand the ghost of a chance of favorable consideration.

"The first practical essentials in the plan of real legislation would seem to be to recognize the States as the smallest unit with which the Federal government might deal. This would give relief from the insistent demand that would come from every township and every district in the Union for its share of state or federal assistance without reference to the practicability of the undertaking.

"It would seem that the basic feature would be such co-operation between the states and federal government as would leave with the states the initiative in the selection of roads to receive aid and as much of the immediate construction and maintenance as would be practicable.

"It also is reasonably clear that there must be some automatic check on the demands made on congress and that this should be afforded through the requirement that the states and the localities should contribute an amount both for construction and maintenance at least equal to, and possibly double that contributed by the federal government."

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

COMMENT ON "GETTYSBURG PICTURE"

Among the 25,000 people who saw "The Battle of Gettysburg" at the Fair last week were hundreds of the "boys" in blue and gray. Among those who applauded the reproduction of the crash and dash of cavalry and infantry were many with tear-dimmed eyes and hearts that bled in memory of loved ones that war, grim harvester, had gathered. MARSHALL CO. VOTES & COURT HOUSE BONDS

Madill, Ok., Oct. 1.—Marshall county has closed one of the warmest elections it has ever held and the votes are being counted today. It is stated that the bond issue of $75,000 for the building of a court house carried with a majority ranging from 45 to 65 votes. The election was close but the bonds have carried by a safe majority. Much credit for the successful election is due to the News-Democrat which waged a hard fought battle from the day the election was called until the last vote was cast. The Socialist Herald, published at Madill made a stubborn fight for the bonds. Some of the papers in the county were against the issue. The bonds proposed for bridges to cost $50,000 have probably carried, but the contest is so close that it will not be known until the last vote is counted.

Disciples of Christ in Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 30.—The international missionary convention of the Disciples of Christ which opened here today with about 5000 members in attendance is the first convention of its kind ever held in Canada. All sections of Canada and of the United States are represented by delegates, especially the states of the Middle and Central West, which are the stronghold of the sect.

According to the reports submitted the sect is in a flourishing condition and is steadily gaining in membership. During the year Sunday schools have been established in many places in the middle and central West and in the northwestern provinces of Canada. There is now a Sunday school at Ponoka, Alberta, probably the most northerly point where a Sunday school is maintained by any religious organization. An effort will be made to draw disciples from the middle west states to the Canadian Northwest, where the sect has gained a strong foothold.

The Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie of Baltimore, who spent the summer in England in the interest of the church unity movement, delivered an interesting address giving an account of his experiences. There were also reports on home and foreign work and on the work carried on by the women.

COTTON CROP SUMMARY, WEEK ENDING SEPTEMBER 24

(By J. B. Turner)

Except for heavy rains in the western belt at the week end, the period was favorable, promoting picking. Temperatures were, however, rather low and in connection with recent rains delayed opening and growth in eastern states.

In this the last of the weekly reports for the season special inquiry was made of correspondents as to the maturity of the bolls. It has been developed that the maturity percentage range from about 66 in North Carolina to 100 in Louisiana and over large areas of Texas and Oklahoma. The majority of the belt appears to be somewhat above 75 per cent which does not denote a late crop, but on the other hand a rather well advanced one in this particular.

The recent rains have been of material benefit in the Atlantic states and the cotton is still making growth and fruit. It is worthy of note though that the rains have by reason of the growth stimulated increased the necessity for late frost to realize the full promise now given. Over most of the central and western districts an average date of frost will have little effect and what is most desired is favorable weather for harvesting, and while conditions have been slightly improved by September rains and the condition percent age is rather better than two weeks ago there is a note of disappointment that early pickings are not meeting expectations.

Heavy rains such as have fallen during past two days in the west add nothing to the crop and are damaging to the quality of the cotton and may lessen the quantity.

By States.

North Carolina—Week favorable except as to temperature which was low and following week of rain cotton opened very slowly. Estimated only 5 to 7 per cent picked and two-thirds safe from frost.

South Carolina—Fair weather following rains allowed resumption of picking. Late cotton developing well and most reports denote good crop if frost is late. Estimated 70 percent fully matured and 10 to 15 per cent picked.

Georgia—Much accomplished in way of picking as week generally without rain. Last weeks rains highly beneficial to late cotton but increases need for delayed frost. Estimated 75 per cent crop fully matured and percentage picked large.

Alabama—Splendid picking week. Very little top crop. Great quantity open and 35 to 40 per cent picked in localities. Estimated 82 per cent crop fully mature. Frost can do but little harm. Many small bolls open. Last weeks rains benefited few of lowlands.

Mississippi—Rapid picking was most notable development of week. Every report brings news of smaller out-turn in boll weevil sections. Some good crops north. Free marketing. Estimated little under 80 per cent fully mature.

Tennessee—Ideal week for picking. Rains helped growth late bolls, but returns from all early pickings disappointing. Lint return light. Estimated 72 per cent crop fully matured.

Arkansas—Picking stopped by heavy rains Friday which did considerable damage to grade and may cause actual loss in quantity by reason of delay to harvest and beating out of bolls. Some rotting of bolls. Estimated about 74 per cent fully matured.

Louisiana—Rains have done considerable damage to grade and seed. Ninety five to 100 per cent of crop matured. No top crop. Week-end rains heavy and damaging.

Oklahoma—Weather favorable most of week but rains retarded picking and did little good to plant. Western counties picking bolls to thresh out lint. Some new growth on plant but maturity doubtful. About 85 per cent matured.

Texas—Future weather will have little bearing on yield. Nearly all of crop mature. What is desired is good picking weather. No top crop or late development of consequence except over small area south central and in

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat too much meat which clogs Kidneys, then the Back hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

Well known local druggist says: "I have known of Jad Salts to folks who were suffering kidney trouble and who were only troubled."

Relaying Cornerstone 100 Years Old.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 27.—The cornerstone of St. Mary's Episcopal Church at Newton Lower Falls, near this city, which was originally laid in 1813, was relaid today under appropriate ceremonies and in the presence of thousands of visitors from Boston and other cities and towns in this section of the state.

St. Mary's was the first Episcopal church in Newton. The congregation was organized in 1812 and in the following year the first church was built. The cornerstone was laid by the grand lodge of Masons of Massachusetts, assisted by the Meridian Lodge of Natick. Recently, when the old church building was thoroughly repaired, the old cornerstone was taken out and the box containing the old records examined.

At the ceremony today the cornerstone was relaid by the same lodges, which laid the original cornerstone in 1813. In the evening there will be a reception at the church and several of the surviving former rectors of the church will deliver addresses.

GOOD ROADS CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Muskogee, Ok., Sept. 29.—In addition to its regular agricultural-educational program, the Eastern Oklahoma Agricultural Association is to enter the "good roads" field in Eastern Oklahoma and is now making plans to conduct an active campaign for good roads in the thirty-five counties in the state which are members of the organization.

The association has a membership of thousands of farmers, and besides officers and an executive board for every county branch has a governing board, with President J. F. Darby of Muskogee as its head. The association maintains an extensive immigration and information bureau, a rental department and is figuring on launching a marketing department; each county organization maintains a county farm demonstrator, who is generally the agent for the United States Department of Agriculture, the salary of the demonstrator being paid jointly.

The first move in the good roads campaign will be to secure the services of a good roads expert from the government, and an itinerary of good roads lectures in every county maintaining a membership will be arranged. The request for a lecturer is now before the department at Washington.

In addition, the association will get behind the good roads days in Tulsa, Muskogee, Okmulgee and Wagoner counties Oct. 16 and 17 and will lend all aid possible to the cause. Later it will take up the proposition to build a Kansas-to-Texas highway north and south through Eastern Oklahoma, paralleling the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, and will lend its county organizations to the cause.
